15. Multidisciplinary / interdisciplinary

Ours is a multi-disciplinary institution that culminates in having B. Ed., M. Ed., and Ph. D. programs.

16.Academic bank of credits (ABC):

Academic Bank of Credit is the innovation of the new education policy 2020 in which students have freedom to learn any program across the country's higher education institutions with a specific credit transfer from one program to another and obtaining a diploma/degree/post graduation. However, till this date teacher education courses have not been bought under NEP2020 in the state of Karnataka.

17.Skill development:

Being a skill dominated course teacher education program; more emphasis has been given to the orientation of the student-teachers in the arena of skilled communication. As the students are hailing from diverse linguistic background, during the Pre-internship activity of skilled communication has been made in practice by student-teachers. Student-teachers were trained and made to gain different teaching skills and incorporate ICT skills so that will help them to integrate it during their internship period. The student-teachers were also led in the application of various ICT skills required for their respective professions in the future.

18.Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)

India being a nation which has its own rich heritage of science, culture, knowledge, it is very essential that we need to bring in such components in our classes by connecting it to the system. An effort in this regard by the instituton needs to be made by trying to deliver the curriculum through regional language as much as possible, we are incorporating it into the values of Indian culture by celebrating all national and regional festivals by stressing upon the significance of Indian Knowledge system.

19. Focus on Outcome based education (OBE): Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

The existing curriculum of teacher education has not been framed according to CLO's and PLO's through proper mapping. It will be included if implemented surely. B,Ed program should be designed as an outcome based rather than objective based education as objective based education focuses what a teacher, an institution or program aims to do where as focus is on what a student is capable of performing after the successful completion of the program in a more definable, observable and measurable way.

20.Distance education/online education:

Institution have made it compulsorily engage all its teaching faculties to the online courses undertaken through various sites such as SWAYAM, Coursera, C.I.E.T of N.C.E.R.T, DIKSHA, and Teaching Learning centre's discovered by the ministries at the national level. As an added, institution has also made efforts to sensitize its student-teachers to enroll a minimum of one course of MOOCS available for different agencies by SWAYAM. The institution has, in addition allowed its student-teachers to capitalize on the usage of the already-present platforms like Google classrooms, Zoom, Google meet etc.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

Response:

At R V Teachers College, the progressive performance of students and the attainment of professional and personal attributes aligned with the Programme Learning Outcomes (PLOs) and Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) are regularly monitored to ensure continuous improvement.

Teachers use various assessments such as quizzes, tests, and assignments to evaluate student learning. These assessments are closely aligned with the learning goals of the course and provide quick, actionable feedback to both students and teachers. The results help identify areas where students may need extra support.

To make assessments more effective, teachers view them as an integral part of the teaching process, not just as grading tools. They use assessment data to adjust their teaching methods and ensure that learning goals are achieved.

For assessments to be truly helpful, teachers need proper training in designing and understanding them. Without the right training, there is a tendency to rely too much on traditional methods, which may limit improvement.

Additionally, the college regularly evaluates the attainment of Programme and Course Outcomes (POs and COs) to check the effectiveness of the curriculum and make improvements. This process ensures that students continue to develop both academically and professionally.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

The institution has taken several measures to promote gender equity, ensuring a supportive and inclusive environment for all students. One of the key initiatives is the sensitization of students to the importance of gender equality. Through workshops, seminars, and discussions, students are made aware of gender biases and encouraged to treat everyone with respect and dignity, irrespective of their gender.

The institution highlights the principle of non-discrimination and brings forth a culture that will not discriminate any student by his or her gender. It makes opportunities equally available for every student, either academically or outside academics or even for positions in extracurricular or leadership positions.

Moreover, during the internship period, the student-teachers themselves engage actively in gender sensitization activities. Student-teachers make sure that the environment is respectful to everyone so that they feel valued and switches in their pursuits without any fears of bias or discrimination. 7.1.3 - Describe the facilities in the Institution for the management of the following types of degradable and non-degradable waste (within 200 words) Solid waste management Liquid waste management Biomedical waste management E-waste management Waste recycling system Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

Our Institution tries to make efforts to conserve the environment for managing diverse forms of wastes most suitably.

Solid-wastes: Among the solid wastes- papers, left overs of food items, and classroom and campus dust- are disposed of periodically with the municipality of the given city for disposal properly. A designated place has been put up known as a waste management dump yard. The campus has dustbins where solid waste is gathered all over the campus and thereafter handed over to the town's BBMP.

Bio-wastes: Plant bio waste like dry leaves, different flowers, fruit peels, and other kinds of preliminary garbage is gathered in a covered cement segregation tank. After a while, they decompose to organic fertilizer, which is used for a plant. Water is recycled here with the help of a Sewage Treatment Plant (STP) as a cost-effective process.

E-wastes: There are specific bins designed for e-garbage-smashed phones, laptops, cables, keyboards, CPUs, pen drives, and dry cells which are meant to recycle, and they are kept inside at the entranceway. The e-waste accumulated will be dumped into a glass box, which is fully transparent. These are then dispatched to a rather unique agency which recycles e-waste entirely in an environmental -friendly manner.

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

- 2.6.1 Teachers and students are aware of the stated Programme and course outcomes of the Programmes offered by the institution.
 - The teaching-learning process at our institution is fully aligned with the stated Programme Learning Outcomes (PLOs) and Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs). The Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs) and Course Outcomes (COs) are - shaped by the goals of the institution, which focus on developing life skills, community engagement, and career development, in line with the college's vision of achieving excellence in teacher education. This vision aims to cultivate educators who possess knowledge, creativity, innovation, compassion, and professionalism to positively influence society and future generations.

- The PSOs are clearly outlined in the syllabus, which is aligned with the university's objectives. These syllabi, along with links to the PSOs and COs, are available on the college website for easy access. The communication of PSOs and COs to teachers is facilitated through the program and syllabus guidelines provided by Bangalore City University, which the college follows.
- For students, the PSOs and COs are communicated at the beginning of the term, where the syllabus and its outcomes are discussed in class. Additionally, copies of the syllabus, referencing PSOs and COs, are made available to students in the college library for further reference. The college's IQAC also supports the implementation of university programs that promote this alignment.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

Response:

At R V Teachers College, the progressive performance of students and the attainment of professional and personal attributes aligned with the Programme Learning Outcomes (PLOs) and Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) are regularly monitored to ensure continuous improvement.

Teachers use various assessments such as quizzes, tests, and assignments to evaluate student learning. These assessments are closely aligned with the learning goals of the course and provide quick, actionable feedback to both students and teachers. The results help identify areas where students may need extra support.

To make assessments more effective, teachers view them as an integral part of the teaching process, not just as grading tools. They use assessment data to adjust their teaching methods and ensure that learning goals are achieved.

For assessments to be truly helpful, teachers need proper training in designing and understanding them. Without the right training, there is a tendency to rely too much on traditional methods, which may limit improvement.

Additionally, the college regularly evaluates the attainment of Programme and Course Outcomes (POs and COs) to check the effectiveness of the curriculum and make improvements. This process ensures that students continue to develop both academically and professionally.

- R.V. Teachers College ensures financial accountability and transparency by conducting regular internal and external audits. These audits evaluate the institution's financial management, adherence to regulations, and optimal utilization of resources.

Internal Financial Audits are conducted periodically by the college's finance committee or designated internal auditors. They review day-to-day transactions, budget allocations, fee collections, and payroll processes. This ensures compliance with institutional policies and identifies any discrepancies early. The internal audit reports are reviewed by the management, and corrective actions are implemented promptly.

They also verify financial statements, expenditures, and funding utilization, particularly for grants received from regulatory bodies like UGC or state governments.

During the year, audits covered areas such as annual budget execution, infrastructure development expenses, and scholarship disbursements. In case of audit objections, a systematic mechanism is in place to address them. The institution ensures timely resolution through thorough reviews, document submissions, and follow-ups with auditors.

This dual-layered audit system enhances financial discipline, ensuring the institution's financial operations are transparent, efficient, and aligned with statutory norms.

The institution has taken several measures to promote gender equity, ensuring a supportive and inclusive environment for all students. One of the key initiatives is the sensitization of students to the importance of gender equality. Through workshops, seminars, and discussions, students are made aware of gender biases and encouraged to treat everyone with respect and dignity, irrespective of their gender.

7.1.3 - Describe the facilities in the Institution for the management of the following types of degradable and non-degradable waste (within 200 words) Solid waste management Liquid waste management Biomedical waste management E-waste management Waste recycling system Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

Our Institution tries to make efforts to conserve the environment for managing diverse forms of wastes most suitably.

Solid-wastes: Among the solid wastes- papers, left overs of food items, and classroom and campus dust- are disposed of periodically with the municipality of the given city for disposal properly. A designated place has been put up known as a waste management dump yard. The campus has dustbins where solid waste is gathered all over the campus and thereafter handed over to the town's BBMP.

Bio-wastes: Plant bio waste like dry leaves, different flowers, fruit peels, and other kinds of preliminary garbage is gathered in a covered cement segregation tank. After a while, they decompose to organic fertilizer, which is used for a plant. Water is recycled here with the help of a Sewage Treatment Plant (STP) as a cost-effective process.

E-wastes: There are specific bins designed for e-garbage-smashed phones, laptops, cables, keyboards, CPUs, pen drives, and dry cells which are meant to recycle, and they are kept inside at the entranceway. The e-waste accumulated will be dumped into a glass box, which is fully transparent. These are then dispatched to a rather unique agency which recycles e-waste entirely in an environmental -friendly manner.
